In particular we seek scholars able to teach in Systematic Theology, Historical Theology and Ministry Studies.

Faculty members will teach courses in the theology curriculum, as well as engage with the wider Church, and exercise leadership in administration (e.g. coordinate research, lead ministry formation, or oversee the online program or field education).

Trinity College Theological School, founded in 1877, is an Anglican [Episcopal] Theological School that represents the diversity and inclusive character of Anglican tradition, committed to the proclamation of the Gospel, the celebration of the sacraments, and the dynamic character of historic Christianity.

We are committed to shaping men and women who wish to pursue ordination in the Anglican Church, develop skills for lay ministry or explore Christian faith for personal or vocational enrichment and development.

Please send a letter of application, curriculum vitae and the names, email addresses and phone numbers of three referees. Priority will be given to applications received by 23 May 2014. Electronic submission is encouraged.
