Very Rev. Assoc. Prof. Shane Mackinlay invites you to the launch of three new Australian Editions by Archpriest Dr Lawrence Cross OAM and Colleagues

Eastern Christianity: The Byzantine Tradition
In the House of the Spirit: A Western Christian's Guide to the Sacraments in the Byzantine Church
God's Holy Fire: Theology of the Icon

by Archbishop Paul R. Gallagher Apostolic Nuncio and
Professor Pauline Allen FAHA

These three books were generated during some forty years of scholarly and ecumenical activity dedicated to the reconciliation of Orthodox and Catholic Christians. They reflect Fr Lawrence’s great love and passion for the healing of East-West Christian division. No one has been more active locally and internationally in this sacred cause or has generated such events and projects to expand the Churches knowledge of each other and their spiritual experience of Tradition. Father Lawrence is still in demand as a speaker at international theological conferences, with a record that spans from Oxford to Serbia and from Moscow to Rome. His research has appeared in leading theological journals world-wide, including The Ecumenical Review, One in Christ, St Vladimir’s Theological Quarterly, the Irish Theological Quarterly, New Blackfriars, Studia Patristica, and the Newman Studies Journal, to name a few. He is the founder of the international conference series Orientale Lumen: Australasia and Oceania, and with Professor Pauline Allen, of Prayer and Spirituality in the Early Church (now continuing as Early Christian Centuries). He has gathered around him a circle of friends and scholars whose work also appears in these volumes. He is the pastor of the Russian Byzantine Catholics in Australia.

Monday 20 July ~ 12.30pm
Catholic Theological College
278 Victoria Parade, East Melbourne

A light lunch will be provided: Please R.S.V.P. to Jill Allen 16 July: jill.allen@ctc.edu.au or 9412 3304