Sentir Graduate College of Spiritual Formation is a work of the Australian Province of the Society of Jesus and a college of the University of Divinity. Sentir is grounded in Christ through the spirituality of Saint Ignatius of Loyola. Sentir's mission is to provide personal spiritual formation that enables creative leaders to transform the world. Sentir values academically rigorous spiritual formation in a supportive faith-learning community.

As the Head of College (CEO), you will provide strategic direction, leadership and management in order to maximise the achievement of Sentir’s vision, mission, values and goals. You will achieve this high performance by building an effective and cohesive academic and professional team, characterised by its constructive, collaborative and innovative culture. In addition to providing effective governance and management of the College, your focus will be to grow Sentir’s student numbers and expand the reach of its mission.

You possess strong business acumen, marketing and financial management capability, exceptional stakeholder and community engagement skills, strong leadership and people management expertise and operational excellence. Ideally, you will have a track record of success in a similar leadership role. Expertise in education and an understanding of Ignation Spirituality will be advantageous. Relevant advanced tertiary qualifications, values-alignment, spirituality and a high level of emotional intelligence will be essential to your success in this meaningful, hands-on leadership role.
