

Year of Mercy – Healing and Redemption

A special presentation by Monty Williams, SJ

GEOFFREY (Monty) WILLIAMS,
S.J., B.A.; M.A.; M.Div.; Ph.D.

Fr. Williams, S.J. is known to all as simply “Monty”. His background and interest in spirituality and culture inform his presentations and workshops.

His work in spirituality and direction started in his formation as a Jesuit in the early seventies. In the summers he can usually be found giving retreats and workshops throughout Europe, Australia, Asia and North America. His work includes teaching workshops, retreat and spiritual direction, and facilitation in discernment.

Program

This one-day workshop examines the closed, broken and open myths we live by and the ways they shape our being in the world. To do this we will examine the narratives of our redeemed and unredeemed past, present and future towards mercy and healing.

9.00am	Introduction to the day
9.15am	Presentation of Redeeming the Time
10.30am	Coffee break & private prayer
11.15am	Small group sharing
12.00pm	General assembly
12.15pm	Lunch
1.00pm	Presentation on the Beatitudes as a way of Healing the Time
2.00pm	Private reflection
3.00pm	Coffee break
3.15pm	Small group sharing
4.00pm	Prayer on the graces of the day
4.30pm	General assembly
